

H E R I T A G E

With a Twist

Experience the past

with Julie McKiernan and Corrie Shelley
as they bring local history to life with humour, characters, costumes and music.

Julie is a freelance writer, creative writing tutor and amateur historian who specialises in bringing local history to life through scripts, essays, talks and books.

Corrie is a singer songwriter, photographer and amateur historian who specialises in bringing local history to life through folk songs.

For bookings contact:

Julie McKiernan

juleswriter@hotmail.com

www.juleswriter.co.uk

Corrie Shelley

contact@corrieshelley.com

www.corrieshelley.com

The Ladies of Leigh

An introduction to some of Leigh's most talented and daring daughters including: a world-famous scientist, a generous benefactor, an award-winning sculptor, and not one - but two - Olympic gymnasts!

A Terrible Affray

Discover a deed of savagery, bloodshed and death, which was committed under terrible circumstances in the London & North Western Goods Station, Wigan, on Sunday 29th September 1895. The first murder of a railway policeman in England.

No Bravery Without Fear

It's spring 1919 and next door neighbours, Mrs Mitchell and Mrs Brown, normally the best of friends, are airing their washing and their very different opinions about the recent war. In particular, the involvement of two local men, Alfred Wilkinson, VC, of Leigh, and Arthur Turtle, Conscientious Objector, of Tyldesley

Babes of Bent & Bongs

Join Corrie and Jules at their very first live podcast, a light-hearted look at some influential local ladies who changed the landscape for women in their communities through education, motivation and creativity. With a surprise overseas success!

3 Nightclubs of Leigh

Revisit the hottest night spots of Leigh with Babs and Sand who have been there, seen it, done it and served it up in a basket! Join them for last orders as they recall the times, tunes and fashions of the sixties. How many will you remember?.

Leigh Girls' Grammar School (LGGS)

Miss McKiernan & Miss Shelley will take you on a swift and sure journey back in time to Leigh Girls' Grammar School (LGGS). You will meet some of the teachers, see inside the building and learn some of its traditions and most memorable moments. But don't be late or you may end up on the settle outside the Headmistress' office!

Major Hart

In 1947 the National Coal Board took over all the collieries in the UK - and broke Major Hart's heart. The Managing Director of Bickershaw Colliery knew 'nothing of music' but created the best brass band in the country and was devastated to lose both his livelihood and his proudest achievement

How to be WomanLeigh

Hear how, why and when the suffragettes came to Leigh and who was arrested for threatening a policeman with a book! Uncover the mystery of the Mistress of the Wardrobe of Disguise and learn more about the Bodyguard's Role!

Not That Derby- This Derby!!! 100

Ways to Big up Your District!

How do you market an area that has lost it's industries and identify and feels ignored? Well, you put the big light on, make a brew and concentrate on what the area has in abundance - grit, good humour and some great ginnels! A light hearted dramatic exploration on the history, mystery and magnificence of the West Derby Hundred.

The Mine is Yours - Mining Trails

Dig into a mine of information about local collieries, their associated buildings, employees and achievements as we unearth: inventions, medals for bravery, pit brow lasses, strikes, philanthropic pit owners and much more!

Santa's Little Helpers

It is the winter of 1974 and Babs and Sand are very discontented. Having retired from the nightclub scene, they are now 'seasonal entertainers' in a local department store. Join them as they take a light-hearted look at the history and traditions of Christmas. A TREEmendous Cracker of a night with Blue Peter inspired props and costumes.

Builders of Dreams

Learn how J.C. Prestwich, the son of a nut and bolt manufacturer from Atherton, survived successive family tragedies to go on to become a successful architect. "Any building of any merit (in Leigh) which is not a church or a mill is almost certainly by the local firm of J.C. Prestwich & Sons, capable – sometimes very capable – in a number of styles."

Lilford Park, a 30 year struggle

A stroll through the long and eventful back story of Lilford Park, meeting its main protagonists including activist Solomon Partington, several Lord Lilfords and cometh-the-moment-cometh-the-man, Mayor Joseph Ashworth.

Joseph Farington and his Journal

A look at 18th-century English landscape painter and dedicated diarist, Joseph Farington who was born in Leigh, exhibited at the Royal Academy and recorded the best bits of his life, politics, the weather and even Royal scandals.

Do you have a topic you would like researching?
Contact us and we will be happy to discuss how we can turn your topic into words and music.

